FACTUAL BASIS

Should this matter have gone to trial, the government would have proven, through the introduction of competent testimony and admissible, tangible exhibits, the following facts, beyond a reasonable doubt, to support the allegations in the indictment now pending against the defendant:

The Defendant, YONI JAVIER SANTOS-BUSTILLO (hereinafter “BUSTILLO”) has agreed to plead guilty as charged to the two-count indictment charging him with illegal use of a social security number, in violation of Title 42, United States Code, Section 408(a)(7)(B), and false statements to U.S. citizenship in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1015(e).

A U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (hereinafter “ICE”) immigration enforcement agent (hereinafter “agent”) would testify that he encountered BUSTILLO who the agent identified as an alien. The agent would further testify that BUSTILLO had in his possession a Louisiana Identification Card under the name Jorge Rodriguez-Solis.

A Louisiana State Police Trooper (hereinafter “trooper”) would testify that on September 19, 2011, he was contacted by ICE agents about a man presenting a Louisiana Driver’s License. The trooper would testify he acquired the license under the name of “Jorge Luis Rodriguez-Solis” and verified it was authentic by accessing various Louisiana Department of Motor Vehicles databases. The trooper would testify he contacted the Louisiana Department of Motor Vehicles and was provided a August 14, 2008 Affidavit of Application for Louisiana Identification Card signed by BUSTILLO among other documents. The trooper would further testify that the name on the August 14, 2008 Affidavit of Application for Louisiana Identification Card was “Jorge Luis Rodriguez-Solis” and the social security number was XXX-XX-2177.

The trooper would testify that he advised BUSTILLO of his Miranda rights and conducted a taped interview in which BUSTILLO admitted applying for a Louisiana Identification Card on August 14, 2008 in Houma, LA. The trooper would further testify that BUSTILLO admitted to being an alien. The trooper would testify that BUSTILLO admitted that on August 14, 2008 he knowingly falsely represented himself as a citizen of the United States by presenting a Puerto Rican birth certificate under the name Jorge Luis Rodriguez-Solis in order to obtain a Louisiana Identification Card. The trooper would further testify BUSTILLO admitted that on August 14, 2008 he knowingly represented that the social security number XXX-XX-2177 belong to him, when in fact BUSTILLO knew the social security number did not belong to him, in order to obtain a Louisiana Identification Card.

An official with the Social Security Administration would testify that the social security number XXX-XX-2177 used was not assigned to BUSTILLO.
